

C.A.R. ENCAMPMENT

THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The Great Country Paper of the West.

Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Obituaries—Rev. P. A. Simpkin officiated at the funeral Saturday afternoon, of Theodore F. Chapman.

Busy—Market Row was opened for a while yesterday morning, doing a land office business with visiting veterans and tourists.

Convalescent—Miss Anna May Bowen, of the state board of health, has returned from a protracted sojourn on the Pacific coast with her health entirely restored.

Caledonian—The Thistle club will give an excursion to the Hermitage in Ogden canyon, Aug. 18, to fraternize with the Scottish people of Ogden who are to plaque there on that date.

Help—Meatmen say all smoked meat are advancing owing to the great scarcity of supplies in the country. Breakfast bacon is quoted at 23 cents; ordinary bacon at 17½; and ham at 14-16 cents.

Customs—Collector Greenwald of the Salt Lake Custom house has received notice from the department at Washington not to liquidate any shipments until after receipt of the full text of the new tariff bill.

Appointees—Governor Spry has appointed Horace Peery and Angus Wright of Ogden, as members of the committee which will assist the State Fair association in preparing for the Inland Empire exposition which will be held in October.

Revoked—Col. George B. Squires, commissioner of insurance has revoked the charter of the Protective Order of Puritan of Pittsburgh to transact business in Utah. It is asserted that the company granted rebates and otherwise violated the insurance laws.

Judicial—During the encampment week no state cases will be heard by Judge Bowman in the criminal division of the city court, and the city court docket will be called at 9 o'clock in the morning. On Wednesday the day of the parade, no court will be held.

Cave-in—William Cox, a miner employed in the Bingham-Central gold mine at Park City was seriously injured in a cave-in on the 1,400 level last Saturday, and was brought to St. Mark's hospital yesterday suffering from a fractured leg and badly cut head.

Musical—A full rehearsal of the singers and instrumentalists who are to take part in next Sunday's dedicatory program at the Catholic cathedral was held yesterday evening with pleasing success. Yesterday was the first time all had been together, including the harpists, so that the event was one of marked interest.

Mexican—James Cunningham returned yesterday afternoon from San Luis Potosi, Mexico, where he has a large and successful plantation. He says the reports in today's dispatches from the City of Mexico about the native population being starved out of the country of the American capital and elsewhere in the republic is all bosh. There is no feeling at all against Americans, who are welcome down there at any and all times.

Upset—George S. Lane, a paper-hanger residing at 831 Martin street, was the victim of a runaway accident last night, in which he sustained a broken leg. While he was driving along Main street in the Sixth Ward, his horse took fright and bolted. While trying to check the horse, the latter swerved suddenly, upsetting the buggy and throwing Lane to the street. He was removed to his home in the police patrol and given medical attention.

Reclamation—Joseph R. Murdoch of Heber City has filed with the state engineer, an application for 60 cubic feet of water, March 1 to December, for irrigation purposes in the valley of the city. The diverting works will consist of a pumping plant, pipe line and canal 132,000 feet long, to irrigate 32,000 acres of land. Others interested with Mr. Murdoch are Joseph B. Keeler, Earl H. Glade, James C. Jensen, Stephen L. Chipman, J. William Knight, and Wm. E. Lyde, George H. Brinford, A. J. Evans, and David Braden.

Accredited—Joseph Burke, a young man landed in jail Saturday night following a too strenuous endeavor to secure a room in the Culien hotel, after he had been told that there was not a room to be had. Burke had applied at the desk for a room and upon being informed by manager, H. Wood, that he could not be accommodated because it is said, in sulking in his remarks. Detective Wheeling was called in and Burke removed to the jail. He will be charged with drunkenness and disturbing the peace.

Strapped—J. D. Moore, a G. A. R. veteran, reported late Saturday afternoon the loss of his pocketbook containing the return half of a round trip ticket from Towns, Ga., and $55 in cash. Mr. Moore was the victim of pick-pockets and his loss left him stranded. The women's citizens' committee obtained for him a room with Mrs. G. J. Smith, 127 west Sixth South street, where he will be cared for. She has the notebook with the tickets which it is likely that they will not want to use, to be found, it should be returned to the G. A. R. headquarters.

Tans-Atlantic—The many friends here of Tom McMarnan, who was formerly a sporting cartoonist in this city and who went on the Orpheum circuit with Marcus Meyers in a sketching tour, are called Marcus and Mack, will be pleased to learn of their engagement for a tour of Europe. McMarnan wrote to a member of the press a week ago that he expected no engagement of this kind, and now word comes that they have been signed for a vaudeville tour. From the time they put on their act in Salt Lake it proved most attractive, and the two young men are now on their way across the pond.
